DEATHS OF A DAY

Death Causes Sorrow.

The death of Harry Duval, for years a bridge foreman with headquarters in Paducah, spreads regret and sorrow generally among the railroad men here. He was a man popular with all, and was a valued employee of the road. He was promoted from the lowest position on the section. When death overtook him he was occupying the position of supervisor of bridges and buildings on the Nashville division, and filled the position with credit to himself and to the road.

Mrs. Mary N. Blanford.

Mrs. Mary N. Blanford, 45 years old, the wife of J. R. Blanford, of 514 South Eleventh street, died at 10 o'clock last night of consumption after a lingering illness. She leaves her husband and six children. The funeral was held at the Catholic church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The burial was in Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Mrs. Lydia King.

Mrs. Lydia King, wife of Charles King, of 332 Jarrett street, died last night in child birth. She was 20 years old and leaves a husband. The body will be taken to Bethlehem in Graves county, for burial.

Mrs. French's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Martha French was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of her grand daughter, Mrs. Clyde Cooper, on the Hinkleville road. The burial was in Oak Grove cemetery.

Tom Watson Boomed.

Atlanta, Nov. 13.—Tom Watson, the Populist leader, may head the Southern Cotton association. His friends are urging him to make the race to succeed Harvey Jordan, who has announced his retirement.

Mark Twain Is Ill.

New York, Nov. 13.—Mark Twain is confined to his home with attack of bronchitis. He says it is his annual siege of trouble and there is nothing serious about it.

SCANDAL!

Has never touched the garments of the New England Mutual Life Insurance company of Boston. Without a stain it has lived almost three-fourths of a century. Incorporated under the admired insurance laws of Massachusetts, it is the first Life Insurance company in the United States to obtain a charter, having been organized in 1835 and commenced business in 1844.

It is the original ANNUAL DIVIDEND Company of the United States, and its record is an enviable one.

The contract is simple, short, easily understood. Our large dividends and low premium rates will please you. We have many friends and are anxious to number you among them. If interested, just telephone 127. We promise not to worry you.

Not Raiders, But Robbers.

Pretoria, Nov. 13.—Capt. Smith, who commanded a Boer detachment in the late war, says that Ferreira and his men are merely robbers and that the stories of a Boer uprising are purely moonshine. Considering the number of never-do-wells which have recently gone into the German territory, it is surprising, the captain says, that similar occurrences have not been reported before.

Lumber Yards Burn.

Chattanooga, Nov. 13.—Chattanooga lumber yards were destroyed by fire this morning. The fire originated from an apparatus which feeds the furnace. The plant may not be rebuilt.

Died of Rabies.

Cleveland, Nov. 13.—After suffering the agonies of hydrophobia, which developed Friday as the result of the bite of a pet dog last August, Peter Turk, aged 10, is dead.
